

September 2010.

This is our second visit to the area. We stayed at Argeles about 10 years ago and always hoped to return.

This is a wonderful apartment, so quiet and peaceful. Collioure is as beautiful as we remembered and fairly quiet after 'le week end'.

Beach at Pambilles is excellent with great coastal walks. Art Exhibitions superb everywhere. Paid our respects to Charles Rennie Mackintosh - a long way from Glasgow to Port Vendres!

Drove into the Mountains towards Andorra on a cloudy day. Well worth it to see 'le petit train jaune' and the views.

Thankyou so much to all for a really wonderful holiday.
